Message from the President

My Dear NCASFAA:

I consider it an honor and a privilege to serve as your President of NCASFAA for the 2020-2021 academic year. My theme “We are the beacon of light that shines beyond our state of darkness, we can tackle this together on a sea of tranquility” resonates with the current state of uncertainties.

As we face this unprecedented time and the impact of COVID19, NCASFAA remains committed to its mission: “The North Carolina Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators provides training and professional development opportunities to the financial aid community, advocates on behalf of financial aid professionals, and strives to promote educational access and choice for students.”

I will embrace the upcoming year day by day as rules and regulations are constantly evolving with innovation and creativity to deliver stellar service to our community.

My blueprint is as follows:

- President’s summit
- Fiscal accountability
- FAFSA completion Initiatives
- Guidebook for Officers
- Analysis and determination of diversity gaps in membership and leadership-reiterate NCASFAA’s commitment to diversity and inclusion
- Recruitment of New Members
- Strengthen business partnerships
- Timely dissemination of information through newsletters, emails, and legislative advocacy outreach that is pertinent to the financial aid community
- Provide professional development and training opportunities for all members throughout the year
- Statewide Financial Aid Director’s Meeting

This is just the beginning and I am certain many more initiatives will be forthcoming. You are the lifeblood of our association (#NCASFAA Strong) and your phenomenal executive board is eager and ready to serve and take on any challenges/opportunities this year may hold.

Please renew your membership for the 2020-2021 year. NCASFAA membership will be necessary for participating in events and activities during the year! Membership provides opportunities for webinar training, conferences, legislative updates, and the wonderful networking and friendships we can build. Please take a moment to remind your colleagues to join or renew their NCASFAA membership! The renewal link can be found here: <https://bit.ly/2OTwWv0>.

Lastly, I am so proud to be part of a supportive association and I welcome all creative ideas/suggestions!!

In the spirit,

Kamesia M. House

President, NCASFAA, 2020.2021

Keynote Speaker

Peter Hans is the seventh president of the University of North Carolina System. As a first-generation college graduate, he is committed to providing accessible, affordable, high-quality educational opportunities for all.

Prior to his election in 2020 he served as the ninth president of the North Carolina Community College system. During his tenure the system increased visibility, enrollment, completion rates, public funding, private support, and business partnerships.

President Hans was elected by the legislature to the State Board of Community Colleges (1997-2003) and UNC Board of Governors (2003-2015) where he was chosen by peers for leadership roles and fought for streamlining the transfer of student credits.

Previously he served as senior policy advisor to three members of the United States Senate, counseled the private sector on public affairs at one of the state's largest law firms, and supported UNC system President Margaret Spellings on key initiatives.

President Hans grew up in the small North Carolina towns of Southport on the coast and Hendersonville in the mountains. He earned a bachelor of arts degree from UNC-Chapel Hill and a master of liberal arts in extension studies from Harvard University.

General Session Speakers

Celena Tulloss serves as the Senior Associate Director in the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships at the University of Tennessee Knoxville. Prior to joining the team at Tennessee, Celena served as the Executive Director of Financial Aid at Lincoln Memorial University. Celena has held many different leadership positions in the state and regional associations, including Electronic Services Chair, Conference Chair, New Aid Officer Workshop Instructor, TASFAA President and was a member of the inaugural class of the SASFAA Leadership Symposium. She currently serves as 2020-2021 SASFAA President. Celena holds a Masters degree in Education Leadership. She enjoys cooking, the lake, and spending time with her family, husband Scott, daughter Carrigan and their two curly white dogs, Grizzly and Butter.

Dana Kelly currently serves as the vice president of professional development and institutional compliance for the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (NASFAA). In this role, she oversees all products and services assigned to the training and regulatory assistance and certification and credentialing departments, supervises DC-based and remote training staff, manages the annual Leadership & Legislative Conference & Expo, and develops session content for NASFAA's national conference. As a member of NASFAA's executive team, she is instrumental in ensuring NASFAA is working toward the vision, mission, and goals established by NASFAA's Board of Directors. Prior to working at NASFAA, she held positions at Nelnet Diversified Solutions as a national trainer, at Nelnet as a regional director, and at High Point University as the director of student financial planning. She is a former NCASFAA President and continues to work closely with State and Regional Associations. She holds a Bachelor of Science in justice and policy studies from Guilford College, a master's degree from University of Phoenix in organizational management, and master's in public administration from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Elizabeth V. McDuffie has been the Executive Director of the North Carolina State Education Assistance Authority for six years after serving as the Director of Grants, Training and Outreach at the Authority for 17 years. She will retire in January 2021 concluding a 41-year career in higher education at four North Carolina institutions and the SEAA. Elizabeth earned a Master of Business Administration from Meredith College, a Bachelor of Science in industrial relations and psychology from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and an Associate of Arts degree from St. Mary's College. Elizabeth started her professional work as a temporary four-month employee in admissions that extended to a lifetime career in higher education with a focus on creating access to higher education opportunities for students. In addition to conducting hundreds of presentations on financial aid for students and their families, Elizabeth considers the creation FAFSA Day to be one of her most rewarding accomplishments, providing assistance to tens of thousands of North Carolina students and their families to complete FAFSAs since 2001.

Pam Gilligan has been in higher education for over 40 years starting as a work-study student in the Office of Financial Aid Services at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst. During that time, Pam has worked as a financial aid professional at institutions in New England, including Trinity College (CT), Boston College, and Berklee College of Music (MA). Pam has served as President of both the Massachusetts Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (MASFAA) and Eastern Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (EASFAA) as well as the NASFAA Board of Directors. In addition, for several years, she co-presented NASFAA financial aid training series while teamed with federal training officers from the Boston, Philadelphia, and Chicago regional offices. In the 2000s, Pam left the campus life for higher education marketing, spending eight years as Director of the Northeast Region for the National Student Clearinghouse. Later, she returned as a consultant for several schools and organizations bringing her back to college campuses, as well as creating national training for volunteer tax preparers providing free assistance to low-income families completing the FAFSA. In 2011, Pam joined ED's Federal Student Aid as a Training Officer based in the Boston regional office sharing the region with Training Officer, Anita Olivencia.

Dr. Shonda M Asaad is a Hematology / Oncology Specialist in Jacksonville, North Carolina. She graduated with honors from West Virginia University School of Medicine. She also attended the Pain Management and Palliative Care Training Program at Beth Israel Hospital in New York and the Hematology and Oncology Fellowship at Penn State University. Having more than 29 years of diverse experiences, especially in Hematology/Oncology/Internal Medicine, Dr. Shonda M Asaad affiliates with many hospitals including Sampson Regional Medical Center, Onslow Memorial Hospital and is currently the Medical Director of Continuum Hospice and a Hematology and Oncology Physician at Southeastern Medical Oncology Center.

Presentation Description and Presenter Information

Thursday, October 29, 2020

General Session

- Welcome, President Kamesia House
- Keynote Address, UNC System President Peter Hans
- SASFAA Update, President Celena Tulloss
- NASFAA Update, Dana Kelly
- Conference Charity, Southeastern Cancer Care, Dr. Assad
- State Update, Elizabeth McDuffie
- CARES Act (Session and Panel Discussion)
  - Panel Members include:
    - Brian Blackburn, Associate Director of Financial Aid, University of Mount Olive
      - Brian Blackburn is the Associate Director of Financial Aid at the University of Mount Olive since December of 2019. He previously served as Associate Director of Operations at Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia, PA for over 11 years. He also worked as a Client Relationship Manager with M&T Bank and the Assistant Director of Financial Aid at Widener University in Chester, PA. He started his career as the Media Relations Director for the Interboro School District in Prospect Park, PA. As a member of PASFAA, the Pennsylvania association, he has served as conference committee chair, Chair of Technology, Chair of Financial Awareness and served the association as Private Sector Representative. He earned a Bachelor's Degree in Instructional Media from Widener University. He has worked on the Colleague software for over 10 years and the Banner software for 3 years.
  - Bruce Blackmon, University of North Carolina Charlotte
    - Bruce is the Director of Financial Aid at UNC Charlotte and has been there since 2014. He has been in financial aid in North Carolina and a member of NCASFAA since 1994. He served on various committees in NCASFAA including a year as President in 2002-03. He is married to Katilda Blackmon, who is an E.R. Nurse Practitioner for the Carolinas Hospital System. They have two married sons, a granddaughter, Emmaline, and are expecting a grandson in April.

- Trina Orr, Western Carolina University
  - Trina loves to read and spend time with her family unless she is helping someone navigate the financial aid process. Trina is the Director of Financial Aid at Western Carolina University, where she is also a two-time alumnus. She has worked in financial aid for 26 years. Starting as a work study student, Trina worked her way through financial aid office positions to become director in 2008, making her a ‘jack-of-financial-aid-trades’.
- Andrea Simpson, Director of Financial Aid, Surry Community College
  - Andrea Simpson graduated from Salem College in 1997 with a B.A. in Foreign Language Management and Spanish and received her International M.B. A. from Gardner-Webb University in 2004. She and her husband, Josh, live in Pilot Mountain and are parents to thirteen year old, Leah, and nine year old, Tye. She began her career in Financial Aid in January of 2007 when she was hired as the Assistant Director and VA Certifying Official at Surry Community College. The following year, she was promoted to the position of Director of Financial Aid and Veterans Affairs. Andrea has been a member of NCASFSA, SASFSA and NASFSA since 2007. She has served NCASFSA as Professional Advancement- Intermediate Aid Officer Chair, Vice President, President-Elect, 16/17 President and 17/18 Immediate Past President. Most recently she became Financial Aid Administrator Certified through NASFSA. Financial Aid is a tough and thankless job. However, she feels that her amazing staff at Surry Community College and the best peers across the state make it all worthwhile!

Top 10 Audit Findings

- Sharon Oliver, Assistant Vice Chancellor Scholarships & Financial Aid, North Carolina Central University
  - A clean audit with no material findings is the ultimate goal of all institutions. Preparation requires assessing and evaluating business processes on an on-going basis, identifying effective corrective action plans, and engaging campus partners. This session will provide day-to-day operational procedures to avoid compliance issues. The 10 most frequent audit findings will be reviewed with practical solutions recommended. Let’s avoid compliance pitfalls for our institutions by implementing successful strategies.

Professional Judgment

- Lianne Masterson, Director of Financial Aid, Blue Ridge Community College
  - Many of us are having to perform more Income Adjustment PJs this year due to the pandemic and economic struggles. This session will briefly review the regulations, talk about how to establish your institution's philosophy, explore some best practices and finish with some case studies. This will be an interactive session.

Mental Health Self Care

- Jodi Flick, LCSW, ACSW, University of North Carolina Chapel Hill
  - You've heard all the standard advice about taking care of yourself: exercise, get more sleep, get outside. But what can we learn from research into what has most helped those in quarantine and in previous disasters? How can we improve our own resilience, since this is not yet over?

Zumba

- Jacque Allen

NCASFAA's Happiest Hour

- Tired of the regular ole Zoom Meetings? Don't you miss sharing in a few laughs with your colleagues? Well then, this event is just for you! Join us Thursday evening from 5:00pm – 6:00 pm and unwind after a long day with your favorite mocktail or cocktail. There will be activities, laughs, and ways to win some prizes! New members will be recognized.

Friday, October 30, 2020

Consumer Information

- Amanda Buchanan, Assistant Director of Financial Aid, Western Carolina University
  - We hear a lot about the Guide to Consumer Information. But what goes in it? How do you let students know it's available to view? Where does it 'live' in your institution? Who is responsible for it? This session will walk through the required components of the Guide to Consumer Information, responsible parties, and more.

Federal Update

- Pam Gilligan, Training Officer, Federal Student Aid
  - Pam will share statutory updates, regulatory updates, as well as operational updates and reminders. COVID-19 guidance will be discussed as well.

Cyber Security and Data Sharing Basics

- Rebecca Flake, Senior Advisor, Higher Education Services, Cooley LLP
  - Institutions of higher education house vast amounts of confidential student and parent electronic data. Robust and compliant cybersecurity and data privacy policies and practices are increasingly vital as external threats become more aggressive and common. We will discuss the applicable regulatory requirements that apply to colleges and universities, including identifying and reporting data breaches, student data sharing, and practical compliance solutions.

Ask the Experts

- Bruce Blackmon, Director of Financial Aid, University of North Carolina Charlotte
  - Bruce is the Director of Financial Aid at UNC Charlotte and has been there since 2014. He has been in financial aid in North Carolina and a member of NCASFAA since 1994. He served on various committees in NCASFAA including a year as President in 2002-03. He is married to Katilda Blackmon, who is an E.R. Nurse Practitioner for the Carolinas Hospital System. They have two married sons, a granddaughter, Emmaline, and are expecting a grandson in April.
- Lisa Koretoff, Director of Financial Aid, Guilford Technical Community College
  - Lisa Koretoff has been the Director of Financial Aid at Guilford Technical Community College in Jamestown for 25 years. A native of California, she began her career in financial aid in 1987 with a financial aid consulting firm. In 1992, she became the Financial Aid Supervisor at the College of the Sequoias in Visalia, California, a member of the California Community College system. After moving to North Carolina in 1995, Lisa became active at the state and regional level where she has served on many committees and in leadership roles. As a member of the North Carolina Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, she has chaired several committees as well as serving as Vice-President and President. She has also served as a member and former chair of the Financial Aid Review Team for the North Carolina Community College System.

- Katrina Lee, Director of Financial Aid, University of Mount Olive
  - Katrina Lee began her career in Financial Aid in 2003 when she arrived at the University of Mount Olive for a two week temporary assignment. After serving in 4 different rolls over the course of her first two years, she has been the Director of Financial Aid for the last 15 years. Katrina is active in the North Carolina Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators, serving on the board for 2 years and actively volunteering as often as possible. She has also served on committees concerning aid with North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities. Katrina recently attained the Financial Aid Administrator Certified® through the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators.
- Jamie Pendergrass, Senior Assistant Director of Financial Aid, NC State University
  - Jamie is currently a Senior Assistant Director in the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid at North Carolina State University. He has served in financial aid his entire career. Of his 16 years in financial aid, 12 years have been at North Carolina State University and four years at the North Carolina State Education Assistance Authority (NCSEAA). Jamie graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Political Science in 2004 and a Masters in Liberal Studies in 2009, both from North Carolina State University. Jamie is passionate about the financial aid profession as he is a first generation college student who owes his ability to afford and attend college to receiving financial aid as a student. Jamie served as President of the North Carolina Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (NCASFAA) in 2018-19. When not working to serve students or helping colleagues, you can find Jamie reading, enjoying politics, spending time with friends or family, or cuddling with his two kitties, Celie and Harpo.
- Julie Poorman, Director of Financial Aid, East Carolina University
  - Julie Poorman is the Director of Financial Aid at East Carolina University in Greenville. She moved to Greenville to work at ECU from a private college in Boston, Massachusetts in 2008. Julie began her career at a large public university – her alma mater – Iowa State University in 1985 typing check receipts. From there she began writing loans and training others on how to calculate what became known as the EFC. She left ISU in 1995 to take her first Director's position at Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, NM. Eastern is a public university and a Hispanic Serving, three campus system with a significant native American population, large military and veteran enrollment and a charter member of the Western Governors University. From New Mexico she moved to Annapolis, Maryland to take a position with the Maryland Higher Education Commission. After one year in the legislative environment she decided she was happier on a campus and moved to Boston to work for a private college. During her “higher ed career” she has been an advisor for students studying abroad (graduate assistantship); been adjunct faculty in the Political Science Department at a community college (part-time job); for one year was the director of Admissions as well as director of Financial Aid (while a search was underway); and has landed as happy as a frog in a pond at a large, public university in North Carolina!

- Tracy Ward, Director of Financial Aid, James Sprunt Community College
  - Tracy Ward has been in Financial Aid for 17 years. She has worked at a four year private institution as well as 2 institutions in the NC Community College system. She is currently at James Sprunt as the Director of Financial Aid where she has worked for the last 6 years. Tracy is currently a member of the Financial Aid Review Team. Tracy is married, has two children and one grandchild.

Professional Affiliates

- NCASFAA is truly thankful for its supporters. Without their products, knowledge, and financial support our Association would not be able to administer the exceptional training we are able to provide our members.

Delving into Direct Loans

- Dana Kelly, NASFAA
- Wondering if you are prorating loans correctly? Do you know what to do when a borrower’s loan amounts are in unequal disbursements? In this Q&A style webinar, we will test your knowledge on key aspects of the Direct Loan program and share guidance NASFAA received from the U.S. Department of Education. Join Dana Kelly, NASFAA Vice President of Professional Development and Institutional Compliance, to explore some of the most frequently asked questions related to packaging, originating, and disbursing Federal Direct Loans received by our NASFAA AskRegs service.
